If you are like me, you have several drink books. And they are really good when you want to get them down, search for a drink, figure out if you have the ingredients. Most of the time, I just want to make a quick drink and don't want to take too much time doing it. I want it fairly simple and tasty.

So I compiled this list of 21 drinks. These are my go to drinks. Some of them are fun, and some are open to experimentation. Some of the best places to get drink recipes online nowadays is the actual distilleries. Seagrams, Smirnoff, Bacardi, Captain Morgan, Disaronno, Patrón, Skyy and many more all have some really interesting drink recipes.

Remember that you don't want to carry mixed drinks around in a flask. Often the acid in the fruit juices will mar or damage the finish or even the integrity of the flask if left for too long.

And of course, drink responsibly.
